that Alya Schepetina Michelson is the "Russian victim" working with Lollar by hiring lawyers and paying legal bills. Defendant has written articles of public concern about Alya Michelson which Alya Michelson has tried to suppress and failed via the Web Sheriff. Alya Michelson's father Alexander Schepetina was in the Russian military in Ukraine overseeing the last violent military occupation in the 1990's. Michelson was most likely promised removal of public articles if Michelson aided Lollar. ## Hello Mary,

Barrington Legal is our current counsel. Please excuse my English not so good. I understand you have no money but we have plenty and would like to invest to build your business. We don't care about your past problems we saw the tapes. We care about our investment.

Hopefully we can grow your business. Let's please have no more threats as we find them childish and they serve no purpose and in our world insults only make you more respected.

Let's discuss as if we did not hold all the cards. We want to strike a fair deal and not spend more money on investigations but rather a business plan. But we can not loose face as in RuSSia reputation is important so we can either make big money as allies or we can continue to know each other as legal adversaries. How we spend our money is our business but I assure we can take you from penniless (as stated) to successful. I suggest you behave with goof manors as we are kind Russians not ones looking to continue the pattern of hatred which has been established. And we gladly support Bats as we love them. It's our money they love. We have spent more then 50 on legal to date and prefer money in your pocket not on these "dockets"!

Sasha
